Conference Calling:

Conference Calling is an efficient way to hold phone meetings with multiple participants, and works well for many groups including businesses, community organizations, and extended families. It uses a local 377-1234 number. You simply set a 5-digit PIN code that all your callers use to join the call, and up to 18 people can be on call at once.

Telephone Directory:

Every effort is made to avoid any errors in this directory, but Colo Telephone Co does not assume any liability because of errors and omissions that may occur in the directory. If an error is found in your listing, please notify us promptly in order that the directory may be corrected in the next issue. The directory is the property of Colo Telephone Co. and is to be returned upon request.
